Behavior Expectations

Alamance County Public Libraries is a place for everyone, shared by the community and used by many different people for widely different reasons. Here's what we expect of all our users:

- We expect users to respect the comfort and safety of fellow library users and library staff. If your behavior is making others unsafe or uncomfortable, we'll ask you to stop.
- We expect users to comply with requests from library staff. If you don't, we reserve the right to suspend privileges and/or access.
- We expect users to comply with local, state, and federal laws. If you break the law, we may prosecute.

If you feel that something or someone is making your experience here uncomfortable or unsafe, please let a staff member know.

Safe Child Policy

- For their safety, children 9 years old and younger must remain with a parent or caretaker while in the library. Children 9 and under are welcome to attend programs alone, but their accompanying parent/caretaker must remain in the library in case of emergency. Staff will monitor children 9 and under who are found unattended until a parent/caretaker is located. If staff cannot locate a parent/caretaker, they will contact the police.
- Persons of any age with mental, physical, or emotional disabilities that affect decision-making skills or render supervision necessary must be accompanied by a parent or responsible caregiver at all times.

Library staff are not responsible for the supervision of patrons.

- Library users must present their library card, photo ID, or have a photo on file each time they wish to check out materials or use the computers.

Renewing

- Items can be renewed in person, by phone, or online if there are no holds. Most items may be renewed twice; however, Lucky Day Books cannot be renewed.

We Are Fine Free

Requesting Materials

- ACPL is one collection across separate branches. If an item is unavailable at your home library, please request an item by placing a hold.

Returning Items

ACPL kindly encourages patrons to return materials promptly so that our shared collection can be enjoyed by all. The following guidelines help ensure the return of overdue items:

- Materials may be checked out and returned to any ACPL location.
- Library materials have due dates, but please note that daily fines for late returns will not be imposed.

22 Days After Due Date:

- Borrowing privileges are suspended.

49 Days After Due Date:

- Items will be marked as lost, and accounts will be charged for the cost of the items plus an additional processing fee of $5.00.
- Accounts with overdue items totaling over $40.00, and/or items that are 49 days overdue, will be referred to a material recovery agency, incurring a service charge of $10.00.

Charges are waived for returned items, except for any applicable fees. If you are unable to locate the materials, call the library for assistance.
